PRESS CONFERENCE

Dear Sir or Madam:

On January 31st (Friday) at 4:00 pm Bangladesh Heritage and Ethnic Society of Alberta-BHESA is planning a press conference to announce "International Mother Language Day" program at The City Centre Campus of MacEwan University (Department of Mathematics & Statistics Room# 5-103E, 10700-104 Ave. Edmonton, AB T5J 4S2. President, Bangladesh Heritage and Ethnic Society of Alberta (BHESA) Delwar Jahid, will share on International Mother Language Day, the UN's Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and UN agencies participate in this event that promote linguistic and cultural diversity in the world.

International Mother Language Day was created in 1999 when the United Nations General Assembly called on members to "promote the preservation and protection of all languages used by peoples of the world." Since the day was established, it has been celebrated across the globe from the time of February 2000.

We have also invited our executives, advisors & guests to be present there in the conference Prof. Dr. Nurul Islam of MacEwan University and Shahid Hassan (Ex. Officio) will also answer the questions.

We hope you are able to attend, as it is important to show our strength in numbers and unity and highlights the value of language. The conference will give you the opportunity to demonstrate your commitment to improving the multicultural society in Canada.
